SouEuF - Jena 2011

Film festival „Southeast European Film in Jena“ from 10. November – 12. November 2011

Send us your film! We are looking for interesting film directors with new films from Southeastern Europe!

What do we want?

Our film festival aims to bring – through the medium of art – people from Germany and people from countries of Southeastern Europe together. We want to talk about film and arts as well as about problems, dreams and perspectives of young people from different European countries. And of course: We want to create a space for films that otherwise couldn't be seen by a German audience.

Who are we?

We are a group of young enthusiastic people dealing with projects in culture and science which are all connected to different aspects of the region of Southeastern Europe.

What are the topics of the festival?

We will have four overall thematic sections that are thought to be more associations than a strict division or limitation to your ideas. So take them as a sort of inspiration:

1. „Happiness-Feeling-Border-Violence“. What is the interrelation of happiness and violence? What role do borders play in our everyday life?
2. „The self, the other and we.“ What is actually the self and how do we define the other, the strange? What does „in common“ mean? And is there finally a „we“?
3. „The human in nature. Nature in the human being.“ Where is nature in our life? To what extent is ecology part of our everyday life concerns?
4. „Illusion“ (Chose your own association!)

How can you participate?

If you have a feature, short, documentary, animated, experimental or... film that you would like to present at our film festival in Jena, Germany – please send a copy as a DVD and your contact until 01.09.2011 to:

We will also invite the film directors of the chosen films to come to Jena in November 2011 and to present their films personally to the audience.
